

New golf villages set to grow game

By Andrew Stone

As part of its strategy to grow golf around the country by introducing beginners to the game in a fun, friendly and unintimidating environment, Moregolf, holding company of The Pro Shop and The Vodacom World of Golf, have bought seven Pro Range driving ranges located in the Western Cape (3), Southern Cape (1) and Gauteng (3). They plan to spend R10 million upgrading six of them into Vodacom Golf Villages, along the lines of the Vodacom World of Golf theme park at Woodmead, Gauteng.

Short game practice facilities will be upgraded.

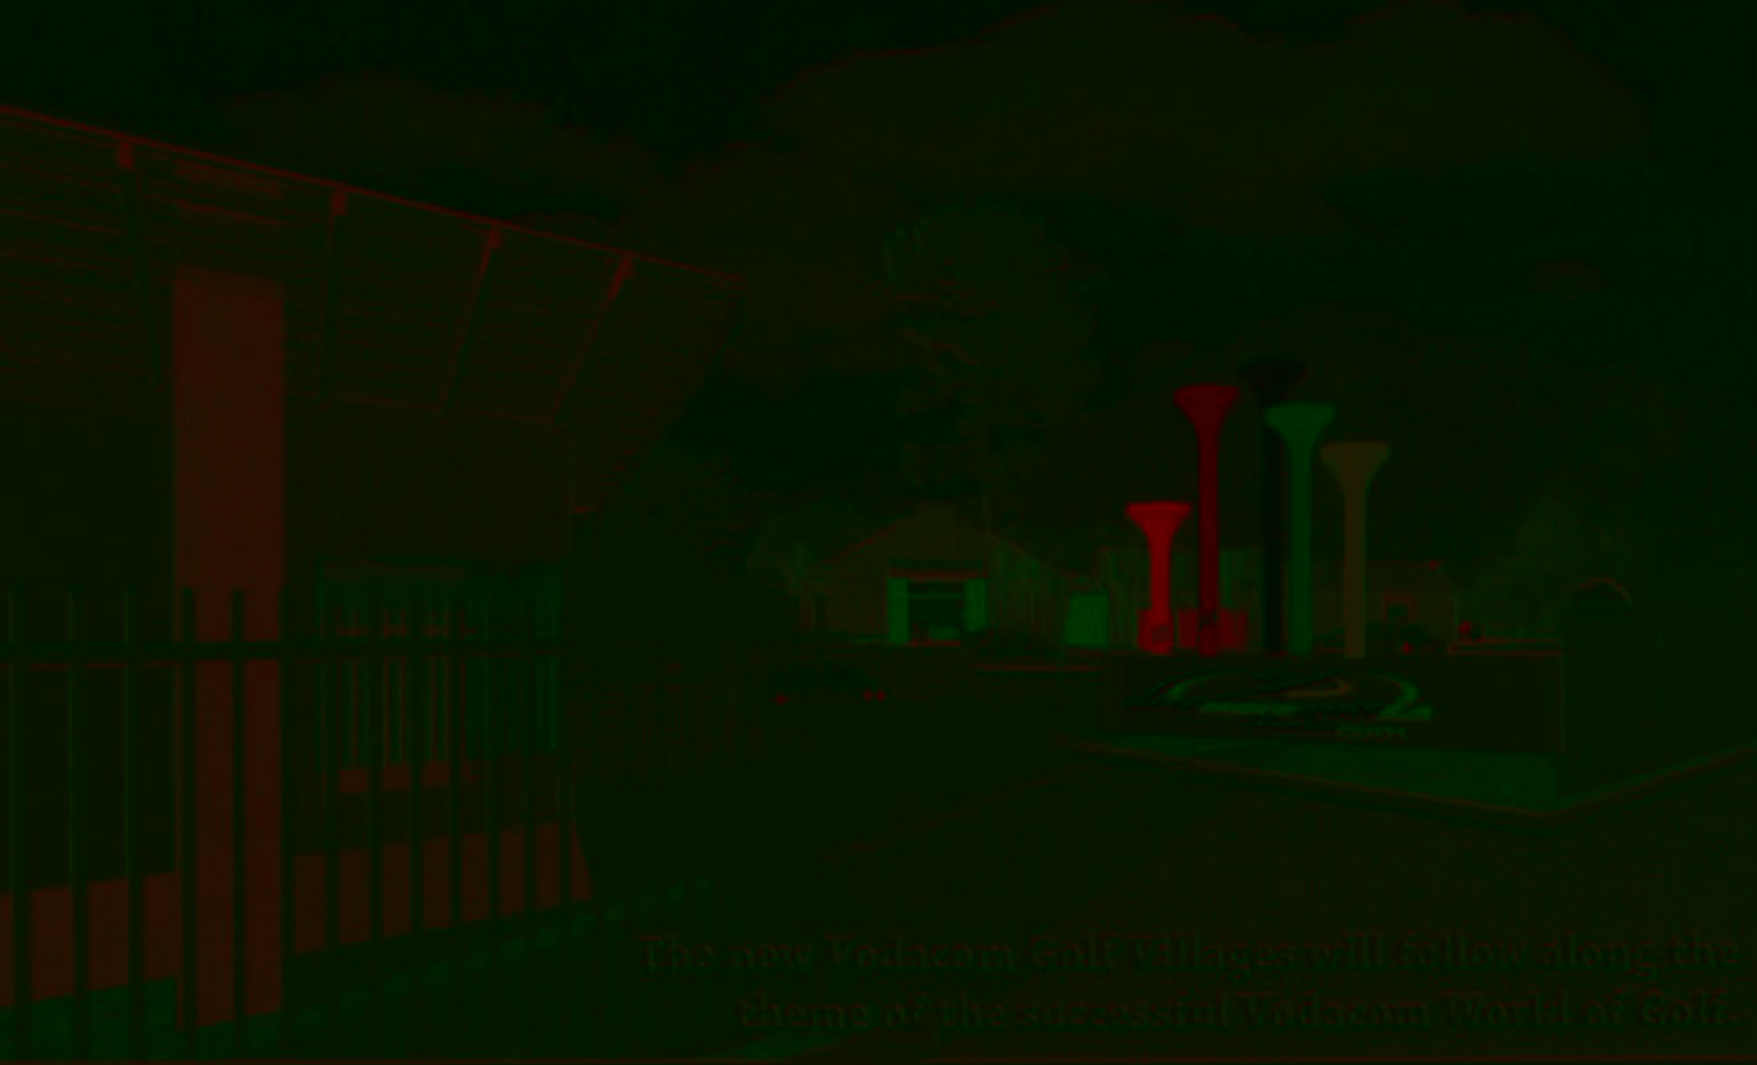

com Golf Villages, along the lines of the vodacom World of Golf theme park at Woodmead, Gauteng.

"We have bought an exciting, established business and are confident we can make these ranges just as successful as The Vodacom World of Golf," said to create a lifestyle where people not only play golf but also enjoy the amenities.

The new Vodacom Golf Villages will follow along the theme of the successful Vodacom World of Golf.