

South African design and architecture consultancy KSDP Design has created a 'piazza' format car dealership for Volkswagen Group. Located in Hatfield, Pretoria, the dealership has been developed to suit the conditions of the South African market. Adapted from an existing architectural model, it is the first time the piazza format has been used outside VW's home market.